SHORT WEIGHT CHARGES

AGAINST STORE KEEPERS

Eighteen Summoned Into New London
Police Court.

Eighteen proprietors of stores in New London have been served with summonses ordering them to appear in the police court to stand prosecution on the charge of selling short weights and failure to have packages properly marked with the weight of the contents.

All the merchants are charged with selling their wares under weight and in most cases the article sold was butter.

The evidence was obtained within the past fortnight by State Deputy Sealer of Weights and Measures Charles A. Fine and Tinspector Walter F. Stiles. Following the visit of these officials to the stores where the short weight goods were found to have been dispensed, they laid their information before Prosecuting Attorney Cronin and the warrants were issued Tuesday afternoon.

NECK BROKEN IN HIGH DIVE

17-Year-Old Joseph Trinnell of Holyoke Hurt at Crescent

Beach—Doctors Agree That Nothing Can be Done to Help Him—Taftville Boy Nearly Broke His Neck at Ocean Beach.

Joseph Trinnell, of Holyoke, 17 years old, is in the Memorial hospital at

New London, with a broken neck, the result of a dive Monday afternoon at

Crescent Beach. He dove into shallow water from a height of about 14 feet.

Young Trinnell is completely paralyzed and his death is merely a matter of time.

Trinnell was in swimming with comparisons at the Croswell Beach pier when he climbed to the railing, on the pier and dove into the water, which was about three and a half feet deep.

The falling from which he leaped is about 14 feet above the water.

The boy's head struck the sand with great force. The impact fractured his neck close to the base of the neck and he was rendered helpless. The spinal cord was crushed and the boy's body was completely paralyzed.

result of a dive Monday afternoon at

water from a height of about 14

Young Trinnell is completely par-

of time.

was about three and a half feet deep.

about 14 feet above the water.

The boy's head struck the sand

Among Trinnell's companions in swimming were Walter Telford, station agent at Crescent Beach, and Thomas O'Loughlin of Hartford. Both swimmers were in the water when the boy and when at the expiration of a few seconds they did not see him come up they realized that he had been injured.

Telford immediately dove to Trin-nell's rescue and found the helpless boy on the bottom. He succeeded in bringing him to the pier where he O'Loughlin assisted in getting him out.

At the direction of Dr. Atkinson, Harold Scranon of Holyoke, formerly of New London, who is spending the summer at Crescent Beach with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Scranon, rushed the victim of the accident to the Memorial hospital in New London.

In his automobile. Quick time was made to the hospital, where Scranon, with the injured boy, arrived shortly after 4 o'clock.

At the hospital it was decided after an examination that the injury to the spinal cord was so serious and extreme that an operation was useless and the idea of operating, which was first entertained, was abandoned.

A specialist who was summoned from

New York concurred in the opinions of the local physicians that an operation was useless because of the nature of the injury.

The death of Trinnell is expected ultimately. The nature of the injury, however, makes it impossible to tell how long he will live. Death may occur in a short time or he may live for a long period, depending entirely upon complications.

Taftville Boy's Neck Strained.

Paul Soubert, a boy whose home is in Taftville, dove off the rocks near the end of the pier at Ocean Beach

Sunday afternoon and was dragged from the water limp and lifeless. It was thought that the boy's neck had been broken in the dive, but examination showed that it was nothing more serious than badly strained cords of the neck.

Dr. M. E. Bray of New Britain, who saw Trinnell make the dive, said that he was taken to the hospital by the boy and then friends took him to his home in Taftville.

The big crowd along the beach thought the youth had suffered a broken neck. The incident caused considerable excitement until the arrival of the doctor with the assurance that it was not so serious as feared.

Lee & Osgood Will Return Money if

Mi-o-na Does Not Relieve Dyspepsia.

Among all the remedies in Lee & Osgood's popular drug store, there are few that they are willing to sell on a guarantee to refund the money if they do not cure.

Mi-o-na, the famous dyspepsia remedy has helped so many of their customers that Lee & Osgood say, "If this remedy does not relieve you, we come back to our drug store and we will cheerfully return your money."

Anyone who has dyspepsia, indigestion, headaches, dizziness, or liver troubles, should take advantage of this chance to be made well without any risk of spending their money to no purpose. Mi-o-na will relieve you, will regulate the digestion, will enable you to eat what you want. If it does not do all this it will not cost you a cent.

Lee & Osgood have sold hundreds of boxes of Mi-o-na in the last few weeks and have yet to receive the first complaint from any customer.

Such a record is simply marvelous and is evidence of the merit of the remedy.

It is easy enough to fill a column with the symptoms afflicting those who have dyspepsia but there is no need of describing their condition.

What they want is relief and they can get it in Mi
